He passed away last week. I'm always sad to see my relatives go. The passing of a loved one is never easy, but my dad and his siblings were lucky to have a dad who loved them, who had a heart to give, and who was a good man. The Grandpa that I just posted on Facebook is one of the ways that I remember my dad. He was very much a World War II buff and he enjoyed showing people pictures of his time overseas. I thought that I'd share a few of those with you. They're all pretty old, but I'm including them for a few reasons. One, I just never got around to getting many of them printed off and giving them to my dad. He was always on his computer and he was never interested in sending me them. Second, they're good memories of Dad and of being overseas during WWII. Third, one of them has a story that I'd like to share with you. I was
