We've made some of this history of Backpage.com: since its founding, the site has been a nuisance to law enforcement, has spent money to protect its anonymity, and has gone to great lengths to get out of paying victims. The court found that Backpage.com is a criminal enterprise, but it did not find the company's founders, five of its co-defendants, and Backpage itself guilty of the crime of "facilitation" of sex trafficking. The judge did find that the defendants violated federal criminal law with a willful attempt to further sex trafficking. That finding 2d92ce491b
