How to manage your finances in a romantic relationship My husband is very involved in managing our finances and I have to admit, it sometimes feels like I am being the bad wife. I am trying my best to educate myself but sometimes I need some help. What do I do when he is spending too much money? I am very comfortable managing our finances and I don't have a problem giving money to a friend. I know it is a process but I just want to be in a position where he is open to what I have to say. You have to be careful with giving too much of your money to him because it could very easily turn into more of a control issue. Are you providing him with money or are you giving him money? If he's giving you money, you could be sacrificing a lot of your financial independence, which he may not want. You have to be careful with giving too much of your money to him because it could very easily turn into more of a control issue. Are you providing him with money or are you giving him money? If he's giving
