These solutions are complete, and are the only solutions I have found that are complete in every section. When finished, you'll have a copy of the solution manual in pdf format. You may do this to download the solutions or use them for studying. I have done both, and find that this way helps me study better. Students will find it a convenience, as most instructors will require that students must have the solution manual on their bookshelf. You may open them at any time, and then just ignore them, but doing this is more of a delay. If you study from them, then put them back in the textbook. Ebook/Internet.
