Field of Invention The present invention relates to a gas catalytic furnace and an exhaust processing device of the same.

Description of Related Arts As methods of cleaning the exhaust gas of a conventional furnace, a bag filter or a ceramic filter is used. If this bag filter or ceramic filter is used to clean the exhaust gas from a conventional gas catalytic furnace, the bag filter or ceramic filter needs to be replaced with a new one frequently. When this kind of method is used to clean the exhaust gas from the gas catalytic furnace, if the material of the bag filter or ceramic filter is damaged, the efficiency of cleaning the exhaust gas from the furnace is reduced. Furthermore, the actual effect cannot be reflected until the bag filter or ceramic filter is replaced, which can damage the environment and increase the production cost. Therefore, the method is difficult to use.

The New York Giants made headlines in early December when they hired former Cowboys assistant coach Mike Pettine to replace the fired Ben McAdoo. McAdoo was only considered a poor coach, not a terrible one, with one of the worst records in the NFL at 1-7. Pettine has a proven track record with the Browns, having compiled a 27-31 record as the Browns' head coach. The Giants hired Pettine to be their defensive coordinator. The Giants needed a coordinator after they fired Steve Spagnuolo, who was the head coach from 2008-13. During those seven seasons, the Giants ranked 26th in total defense. Meanwhile, Pettine was responsible for the Browns defense. The Browns ranked No. 1 in total defense in five of his seven seasons as the head coach. The Browns defense looked to be bad when Pettine was their head coach, but they looked to be a good defense in 2017. The Browns defense ranked No. 15 in total defense during the 2017 season. However, the Giants defense is not looking to be average or even good. The Giants are looking for the Browns defense to be a top-five defense. Here are the five main points about Pettine that could make or break the hiring of Mike Pettine as the Giants defensive coordinator. When the Browns switched to a 3-4 defensive scheme, the Browns defense improved drastically. The Browns defense ranked No. 4 in total defense in 2014 when they went from a 4-3 to a 3-4 defense. The Browns defense ranked No. 5 in total defense in 2015 when they switched back to a 4-3 defense.
