What We Found The Hurricane Florence

aftermath: The images keep flooding our feeds and we cannot find the words to tell you how thankful we are that everyone is ok. We are so happy the family of El Paso makes it out of the storm safe and sound. It reminds us of all of the people we helped during Hurricane Harvey and the people we have helped since then. He found this banner above an abandoned gold mine that he thinks was placed here to warn people about the danger of working in the city. What a sign of the times. Our friend Tyniece was just part of the huge group of people who helped the growing number of people that fled Florence, trapped in their homes. She brought lemons to their town to give the surviving victims something sweet to eat. What a hero.
