Adapted from a book by Amos B. Covey, first published in 1892. Gee Mimsy Were the Borogoves (An old English Folk Song) Lyrics Transcribed The sun was a-shining in the sky; Mimsy were the borogoves, All mimsy were the borogoves, And the midges and the mome raths. A drop of water on the tip Of a tail of a midge will Turn 'em all topsy-turvy, Mimsy were the borogoves. A dog's nose has a merry smell, And a cat's feet are bonny, But a horse's hoof and a cow's hide Is what we live on and on. The cuckoo she is a pretty bird, And the lark is a lovey-dovey, But the old grey hen is my fad Of all them three for to love. Now the cock has fought the day long And the day has fought the crowing, And the hens are sitting on eggs And the hens are sitting on eggs. The farmer he is an honest man, And the farmer he is a wise man, And for all his work that he's at, The farmer pays and the hire man. 595f342e71
